10. (Unclassified - CEA) Delivered to Sally Kelly, in the office of Senator George Murphy (R., Calif.), the Agency's information pamphlet and employment brochures for use in replying to a constituent,

[REDACTED]

11. (Confidential - JMM) Sam Papich, FBI, called to say that the Bureau had been accused by Representative Donald G. Brotzman (R., Colo.) of giving the Congressman the "run around" in responding to his inquiries about the disappearance early last year of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] According to Papich, Brotzman claims to have been informed by CIA that CIA had passed to the Bureau such information on the case as they had, and that inquiries should be addressed to the Bureau. According to Papich, the Bureau has never "opened a file on the case" but is having difficulty in appeasing Brotzman and Papich asked if I would be willing to accompany a Bureau representative in calling on Brotzman to clear up the situation.

I told Papich that, in response to Brotzman's query to the Director, I had on 8 January told David Delcour, in Brotzman's office, that the Agency had never had any contact [REDACTED] but, at the request of [REDACTED] had made inquiries of local law enforcement agencies and been assured that [REDACTED] was alive and well, and had not been the victim of foul play, but had apparently left [REDACTED] and covered his tracks as a result of marital difficulties. I said I had suggested to Delcour that if they wished to pursue the matter further they might contact local police or FBI representatives, since the Agency would have no jurisdiction in such a case even if foul play were involved. (See Journal of 8 January 1970) Papich said on the basis of the above he would try to straighten out the matter and would let me know if there were further problems.
